JOINT REPORT OF ATTORNEY CONFERENCE

Plaintiff Joseph Michael Phillips (“Plaintiff”) and Defendants Collin County Community College District, the Board of Trustees of Collin County Community College District, H. Neil Matkin, in his individual and official capacities as President of Collin College, Abe Johnson, in his individual and official capacities as Senior Vice President of Campus Operations of Collin College, Mary Barnes-Tilley, in her individual and official capacities as Provost of Collin College, Kristen Streater, in her individual and official capacities as Dean of Collin College, and Chaele O’Quin, in her individual and official capacities as Associate Dean of Academic Affairs of Collin

College (collectively, “Defendants”), having conferred on July 12, 2022, pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f) and this Court’s Order Governing Proceedings [Dkt. 30], hereby submit the following Joint Report of Attorney Conference:

1. Brief Factual and Legal Synopsis of the Case.

Plaintiff’s Contentions:

Plaintiff Michael Phillips began his career as a history professor at Collin College in 2007, specializing in the history of American race relations, especially in the Dallas area. In 2019, Phillips granted an interview to the Washington Post about the history of racism in the Dallas area. Defendants disciplined Phillips for granting this interview by issuing an Employee Coaching Form. In 2020, Defendants disciplined Phillips for criticizing Collin College’s response to the COVID-19 pandemic on his personal social media, and again in 2021 for discussing the benefits of mask-wearing in a class about the history of pandemics.

Defendants cited Phillips’s failure to bring his complaints through the “proper channels” as the reason for his discipline. Ultimately, Defendants did not issue Phillips a renewal of his three-year employment contract, ending his employment at Collin College. Defendants terminated Phillips’s contract despite the recommendation of the Council of Excellence—a faculty committee organized by Collin College to assist faculty applying for new contracts and evaluate their performance—that Collin College grant Phillips a new contract.

Defendants terminated Phillips’s employment for speaking to the Washington Post about his area of expertise, criticizing COVID-19 response policies on his personal social media, and discussing pedagogically-relevant material with his students—each of which is speech protected by the First Amendment. In terminating Phillips, Defendants also relied on a vague and overbroad policies.

Defendants' Contentions:

The Board of Trustees of Collin County Community College District contends that it did not violate any of the Plaintiff's constitutional rights, impinge upon his First Amendment protections, nor engage in any conduct for which they could be liable herein. The Board of Trustees has a clear written BOARD POLICY MANUAL which comports with the Texas Community College Teachers Association (TCCTA) CODE OF PROFESSIONAL ETHICS and is consistent with other policies of other similarly situated Community College Districts in Texas. Further, Defendants would have taken the actions complained about in Plaintiff's Complaint regardless of the Plaintiff's alleged protected speech or conduct. Moreover, any claims seeking relief for conduct occurring more than two years before Plaintiff filed this suit are barred by limitations. Regarding alleged damages, Plaintiff has failed to mitigate his alleged damages, if any, and Plaintiff's back pay, if any, must be reduced by any interim earnings or amounts earnable with reasonable diligence. Finally, Plaintiff's claims for equitable relief should be barred, in whole or in part, due to his own inequitable conduct.

Defendants Collin College and the individual Defendants in their individual and official capacities adopt the Board of Trustees' contentions above. In addition, the individual Defendants in their individual capacities assert the defense of qualified immunity.

2. Jurisdictional Basis for Suit.

This Court has federal question jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1331. However, the individual Defendants contend the Court should dismiss Plaintiff's claims against them in their individual capacities because they have qualified immunity, which is an immunity from suit.

Plaintiff disagrees with Defendants' position regarding qualified immunity and contends the court has jurisdiction to hear Plaintiff's claims.

3. A list of the correct names of the parties to this action and any anticipated additional or potential parties.

Joseph Michael Phillips – Plaintiff

Collin County Community College District, legally known as Collin College – Defendant

Board of Trustees of Collin County Community College District – Defendant

H. Neil Matkin, in his individual and official capacities as President of Collin College – Defendant

Abe Johnson, in his individual and official capacities as Senior Vice President of Campus Operations of Collin College – Defendant

Mary Barnes-Tilley, in her individual and official capacities as Provost of Collin College – Defendant

Kristen Streater, in her individual and official capacities as Dean of Collin College – Defendant

Chaelle O’Quin, in her individual and official capacities as Associate Dean of Academic Affairs of Collin College – Defendant

4. A list of any cases related to this case pending in any state or federal court, identifying the case numbers and courts along with an explanation of the status of those cases.

Plaintiff calls the Court’s attention to Jones v. Matkin, et al., No. 4:21-cv-733 (E.D. Tex.) – Currently awaiting decision on Defendants’ Motion to Stay and/or Limit Discovery [ECF No. 8] and Motion for Summary Judgment on Qualified Immunity [ECF No. 9]. However, Defendants do not believe the Jones case has any relation or relevance to this case.

5. Confirm that initial mandatory disclosure required by Rule 26(a)(1) and this orders has been completed.

Defendants served their Initial Mandatory Disclosures on or before July 25, 2022.

Plaintiff served his Initial Mandatory Disclosures on or before July 25, 2022.

6. Proposed Scheduling Order Deadlines.

See attached Appendix 1 for the parties’ proposed case deadlines.

7. Describe in accordance with Rule 26(f):

- (i) The subjects on which discovery may be needed, when discovery should be completed, and whether discovery should be conducted in phases or be limited to or focused on particular issues.

The Defendants who are being sued in their individual capacities intend, as soon as practical, on filing motions to dismiss based on qualified immunity. Based on the recent Fifth Circuit holding in Carswell v. Camp, 2022 U.S. App. Lexis 16901 (5th Cir. June 17, 2022), all discovery in this case will then likely be stayed pending the resolution of qualified immunity which, in turn, will likely require the eventual extension of the discovery period and other scheduling deadlines. Further, if all discovery is not stayed pursuant to Carswell, the individual Defendants then intend on requesting the Court to limit discovery to those materials necessary to decide the issue of qualified immunity. See Local Rule CV-26(a).

Plaintiff agrees that Carswell does require district courts to stay some discovery pending the resolution of the qualified immunity issue. Plaintiff further agrees that any stay of discovery will require extensions of the proposed discovery period. However, Plaintiff does not believe that Carswell requires district courts to automatically stay written discovery against non-qualified immune parties (such as Defendants Collin College, the Board of Trustees, and the official-capacity defendants) when a plaintiff seeks prospective injunctive relief against those parties, which is the case here. Plaintiff would welcome the opportunity to discuss the impact of Carswell at the Rule 16 management conference.

Subject to the above statement, Plaintiff anticipates discovery will be needed on (1) the elements of Plaintiff's claims; (2) the reason for Defendants' discipline of Plaintiff; (3) the reason for Defendants' termination of Plaintiff's employment; Defendants' policy and practice of terminating faculty members for speaking on matters of public concern; and (5) the damages Plaintiff has incurred as a result of his termination.

Subject to the above statement, Defendants anticipate discovery will be needed on the allegations in Plaintiff's Complaint, Plaintiff's alleged damages, and Plaintiff's mitigation of his alleged damages.

- (ii) Any issues relating to disclosure or discovery electronically stored information ("ESI"), including the form or forms in which it should be produced (whether native or some other reasonably usable format) as well as any methodologies for identifying or culling the relevant and discoverable ESI. Any disputes regarding ESI that counsel for the parties are unable to resolve during conference must be identified in the report.

None currently.

- (iii) Any agreements or disputes relating to asserting claims of privilege or preserving discoverable information, including electronically stored information and any agreements reached under Federal Rule Evidence 502 (such as the potential need for a protective order and any procedures to which the parties might agree for handling inadvertent production of privileged information and other privilege waiver issues). A party asserting that any information is confidential should immediately apply to the Court entry of a protective order.

The parties do not anticipate that a proposed order pursuant to Federal Rule of Evidence 502 is required at this time.

- (iv) Any changes that should be made in the limitations on discovery imposed by the Rules, whether federal or local, and any other limitations that should be imposed, as well as.

The Defendants being sued in their individual capacities intend, as soon as practical, on filing motions to dismiss based on qualified immunity. Based on the recent Fifth Circuit holding in Carswell v. Camp, 2022 U.S. App. Lexis 16901 (5th Cir. June 17, 2022), all discovery in this case will then likely be stayed pending the resolution of qualified immunity which, in turn, will likely require the eventual extension of the discovery period and other scheduling deadlines. Further, if all discovery is not stayed pursuant to Carswell, the individual Defendants then intend on requesting the Court to limit discovery to those materials necessary to decide the issue of qualified immunity. See Local Rule CV-26(a).

As noted above, Plaintiff agrees that Carswell does require district courts to stay some discovery pending the resolution of the qualified immunity issue. Plaintiff further agrees that any stay of discovery will require extensions of the proposed discovery period. However, Plaintiff does not believe that Carswell requires district courts to automatically stay written discovery against non-qualified immune parties (such as Defendants Collin College, the Board of Trustees, and the official-capacity defendants) when a plaintiff seeks prospective injunctive relief against those parties, which is the case here.

(v) Whether any other order should be entered by the Court pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(c) or 16(b), (c).

The Defendants being sued in their individual capacities intend, as soon as practical, on filing motions to dismiss based on qualified immunity. Based on the recent Fifth Circuit holding in Carswell v. Camp, 2022 U.S. App. Lexis 16901 (5th Cir. June 17, 2022), all discovery in this case will then likely be stayed pending the resolution of qualified immunity which, in turn, will likely require the eventual extension of the discovery period and other scheduling deadlines. Further, if all discovery is not stayed pursuant to Carswell, the individual Defendants then intend on requesting the Court to limit discovery to those materials necessary to decide the issue of qualified immunity. See Local Rule CV-26(a).

8. Mediation Details

The parties have not yet attempted mediation. The parties agree mediation is an appropriate ADR method for this lawsuit. The parties have agreed on Magistrate Judge Christine Nowak as the mediator.

9. Identity of persons expected to be deposed.

Plaintiff currently expects to depose a representative of Collin College under Fed. R. Civ. Pro. 30(b)(6), H. Neil Matkin, Abe Johnson, Mary Barnes-Tilley, Kristen Streater, Chaelle O'Quin, J. Robert Collins, and Stacey Donald.

Defendants currently expect to depose Plaintiff, any experts identified by Plaintiff, and third parties identified by Plaintiff as having knowledge of his allegations and damages.

10. Estimated trial time and whether a jury demand has been timely made.

The parties estimate the duration of the trial of this matter to be 3-5 days. Plaintiff has timely made a jury demand.

11. The names of the attorneys who will appear on behalf of the parties at the management conference (the appearing attorney must be an attorney of record and have full authority to bind the client).

<sup>2</sup> This is not an invitation or requirement to file written responses. Most motions in limine can be decided without a written response. But, if there is particularly difficult or novel issue, the Court needs some time to review the matter. To save time and space respond only to items objected to. All others will be considered to be agreed. Opposing counsel shall confer in an attempt to resolve any dispute over the motions in limine within five calendar days of the filing of any response. The Parties shall notify the court of all the issues which are resolved.

<sup>3</sup> Within five calendar days after the filing of any objections, opposing counsel shall confer to determine whether objections can be resolved without a court ruling. The parties shall notify the court of all issues which are resolved. The court needs a copy of the exhibit or the pertinent deposition pages to rule on the objection.

Date will be set by Court.
Usually within 10 days prior to final pretrial conf.

If numerous objections are filed the court may set a hearing to consider all pending motions and objections.
